

CODE OF ETHICS

Pets are like a member of your family and as a pet sitter you recognize the importance pets play in the lives of their owners. Your care of other people's pets is very important and should be looked upon as a very serious responsibility.

AS A PET SITTER YOU SHOULD AGREE TO FOLLOW THIS CODE OF ETHICS:

I will treat every pet as if it were my own.

I will be dependable and responsible at all times.

I will have an honest and trustworthy relationship with my customers.

I will respect and protect my customer's home and property.

I will always keep my promises and fulfill my commitments.

Your success as a pet sitter will be affected by the way you conduct yourself and treat your clients and their pets. Using the above code of ethics will assist you in reaching your goal of being a professional pet sitter.
